The Victory Center:

Our Story

The Victory Center for Autism and Related Disabilities emerged from the vision of two determined parents, Barry and Judi Nelson, as they became disheartened by the lack of suitable programs for their son, Jesse. With the encouragement of autism expert Dr. Michael Alessandri, they created The Victory Center over 20 years ago to fill a crucial void, and since, The Victory Center has grown to become a beacon of hope for countless families. We stand as a testament to what love and education based on scientific research can achieve, paving pathways to progress for those affected by autism.

Our Mission

We believe all children, regardless of ability, should have access to an exceptional education within a nurturing environment to thrive at their optimal potential.

Our Unique Approach

We harness the power of Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA), focusing on individual strengths and challenges. Our exemplary student to teacher ratios (1:1, 2:1 and 3:1) ensure personalized attention, while our methods remain rooted in three decades of research, helping improve lives with each passing day. The Victory Center staff tailors educational experiences to foster academic growth, social interaction, functional life skills, and effective communication. Our programs transform potential into progress and insecurity into confidence.

Where Challenges Meet Opportunities

Autism touches 1 in 44 children, affecting communication and relationships. Without schools like The Victory Center, families struggle to find and afford necessary specialized education. Your support can eliminate financial barriers, lighting the path to a brighter, more inclusive future.

Adult Program Expansion

Understanding the lifelong journey, our Adult Program offers hope beyond childhood, focusing on life skills, vocational training, and community integration, proving it's never too late for a
